

POLICY ON WEBSITE OPERATION

Heritage Highlands Homeowners' Association

The Board of Directors grants the powers and duties necessary for the administration of its websites to the Homeowners' Association (HOA).

1. The HOA shall maintain full authority over content, style, inclusions, changes and modifications to the websites including the organization of the websites and which groups, organizations, etc. will have separate home sites with the websites.
2. The HOA reserves the right to edit, modify or change all submitted material prior to posting and may deny a request to post material as it deems appropriate.
3. The HOA may employ a webmaster as it deems necessary for the operation of its websites and may impose restrictions on who may have access to the websites.
4. The websites cannot be used for open forum discussions.
5. The HOA may allow advertising on the websites, links to other websites may be allowed and fees may be charged.

April 26, 2007